APPLICATION

- Make copies of the entire application. (In case anything is lost.)
- Write neatly or use a typewriter
 - If we do not understand your writing, your application will not be considered.
- In the section “Community Service,” feel free to include any informal activities you might have participated in, such as helping an elder paint his/her house or helping at community events. Previous service is NOT a requirement.
- Do NOT leave the section marked “Motivational Statement” blank. In this section, please explain why you want to join TCCC and what you hope to gain from joining.

This section helps the TCCC interview panel understand who you are and may give you an advantage over the competition.
